

ATTEMPT OF YEGGS TO BLOW LUMBER YARD SAFE AT WAVERLY FAILS

Engage in Pistol Duel With Night Watchmen
—Make Getaway by Boarding North Bound Burlington Freight Train—Jacksonville Police on Lookout.

Waverly, Feb. 12.—(Special to Journal).—Three yeggs interrupted in their attempt to blow the safe in the office of the Gibson Lumber Company by Night Watchman Charles Butcher tonight engaged the officer in a pistol duel and then boarded a north bound Burlington freight and escaped.

The attempted burglary occurred about 11 o'clock. The yeggs put a charge of "soup" into the combination blowing of the knob. The noise of the explosion was heard by Charles Butcher, the night watchman.

Butcher immediately investigated and discovered the burglars in the office of the Gibson Lumber company. Butcher got behind a freight car and opened fire on two of the men who were on guard outside the building.

The robbers returned the fire and the third robber who had already gotten a second charge in the safe door rushed out and joined his companions. The fusillade of shots aroused many residents who hurried to the scene.

Officer Butcher fired all the cartridges in the revolver and did not have any more with him. The robbers when the firing ceased boarded north bound freight No. 6100 which was passing thru and escaped.

One of the robbers lost his hat in the melee which was found by Butcher. The hat is a Stetson, fedora style but has no marks of identification.

Immediately after the men boarded the train Mayor Turbull called the Journal office and gave an account of the attempted robbery. He asked the Journal to notify the police and sheriff.

This was done and Night Captain Elliott and the night force and Sheriff Wetherford and his deputies went to the Burlington station. The officers were stationed along the tracks from the station to the Rout street subway.

However, when the train arrived in Jacksonville, the men were not aboard. The train stops at Franklin for water and it is believed that the robbers left the train there and probably took the Alton air line from Clemens station to Springfield.

PROMISED TO BE KEPT OUT OF JAIL BY NEWBERRY

Former Flint Mayor Testifies at Conspiracy Trial

MAKE SLOW PROGRESS

(By The Associated Press)
GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Feb. 12.—William H. McKeighan, former alderman and mayor of Flint, Mich., who in August, 1918, was under sentence to the penitentiary for assault and robbery, testified in the Newberry election conspiracy trial today that he was told by Richard R. Fletcher, a defendant, that if he supported Truman H. Newberry in the primary, his case would be reversed by the state supreme court, but otherwise he would "be left to go to jail."

Fletcher is state labor commissioner with offices at Lansing. The witness said the remark was made in the presence of Paul King, Newberry campaign manager, Fred Castater, a Detroit alderman, and Fred Henry of Flint, a deputy under Fletcher. All three are also defendants. The incident, said McKeighan, occurred behind the prescription case in his drug store.

Under cross examination McKeighan said he knew nothing against the integrity of the Michigan supreme court of any member of it and when asked if he believed Fletcher's statement, exclaimed: "Polities is funny. I was taking no chances."

The testimony came at the end of a drab day in the trial which comparatively few witnesses were heard. Outside of the Flint druggist's revelations the afternoon witnesses were W. J. Crotty, a former employee of the Newberry estate, who was not cross examined; and he had sworn that contributions to the senatorial campaign fund by John Newberry, brotherhood of the senator, amounted to between $15,000 and $20,000 by June 15, 1918. Crotty said the checks were cashed and the money turned over to Frederick P. Smith, manager of the estate of B. Frank Emery of the senatorial committee.

Francis O. Linquist, former congressman of the eleventh Michigan district testified to receiving $4,557 for circulars he had printed and distributed about the state. He said he kept $500 as pay for his own efforts. His testimony brought out that his dealings were with Allen Temple, who he had known as a boy in Marinette, Wis.; Paul King and B. Frank Emery.

Maricus Hanson, a banker from Grayling, Mich., said he found a $50 bill in a magazine which Emery picked up and placed before him and that the defendant explained it was for possible expense in circulating petitions. The banker said he used $15 and returned the other $35.

William Bailey, president of the Detroit Federation of Musicians, testified that Fred Castater offered him $40 a week to work for Newberry and while he was considering he received a letter from the candidate hoping he could join in the campaign. Bailey refused the offer.

George L. Jordan, third member of the grand jury to testify at the trial related that William E. Rice a defendant told the grand jury he received $125 a month, traveling expenses and $300 worth of printing after he had agreed with Charles Joyd, head of the Grand Rapids headhunters, to push organization of Bolo clubs among Spanish war veterans.

McKeighan on direct examination was questioned by W. H. Elchorn. He said he had known Henry four or five years. Fletcher was or three. Castater about one year and King about one introduced in his drug store.

The witness coolly rehearsed the fact of his conviction on the assault and robbery charge and said he was facing from two to fifteen years in prison when the four defendants called on him before the primaries of August 27, 1918.

"I was in the front part of the stand when Henry entered and asked to speak to me in private," said McKeighan. "We stepped behind the prescription case and he told me that there were three gentlemen outside who wanted to see me, but that they did not wish to be seen visiting me and asked if I would wait behind the case for them. I said I would and Henry went out and returned with Fletcher, Castater and King."

"It was about a week or ten days before the primary. King said he was making his last trip thru the state ironing-out the rough spots and that I was one of the rough spots the boys couldn't smooth out, so he thought he had better come and see what was the matter. I told him there was nothing the matter but that I couldn't do anything for him as I was not for Newberry."

"King told me a big expense account would be allowed for my workers if I did not need any more," he said.

CO-OPERATIVE BANKING MAY DELAY 1920 ROAD CONSTRUCTION

BY FARMERS URGED
Keeping of Money in Their Own Banks Voiced by Speakers at American Farm Labor Congress.

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Feb. 12.—Co-operative banking to keep money of the farmers and working men in their own banks was one of the wants which many speakers voiced today before the American Farm Labor congress. Glen E. Plumb, author of the Plumb plan for tripartite control of railroads discussed the sinister centralization in control of the country's business. Chains of co-operative stores were advocated by Duncan McDonald, president of the Illinois Federation of Labor.

These stores, he argued could have the benefit of central buying and general supervision. There should be a simple and uniform system of bookkeeping and the business should be made proof against dishonesty by bonding of the store manager, he said.

O. C. Trask said maintenance of way employees and railroad shop workers have five factories turning out products for them at less than wholesale prices. Co-operative buying gave them a 30 per cent reduction on their products he said.

"We turn out good socks for 25 cents a pair in our hosiery factory," he said. "Gloves, underwear and clothes are among the products."

People must make farming worth the farmers' while if they want food, H. F. Baker of LaPorte, Mich., president of the farmers' national council, said.

"American people must understand the inherent risks of agricultural production. The farmer who invests his small capital and long hours cannot be expected to carry out the program of production unless a means be found to save the individual farmer from the hazards which nature imposes on his calling."

He said a heavy tax upon capital values should be levied to save the people who did the fighting from "paying for the war."

Sidney Hillman, general president of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America declared co-operative banking would be the way to keep money power in the hands of the workingmen and make it possible for him to deal to advantage in the business world.

RAILWAY CHIEFS WILL MEET WITH PRESIDENT TODAY

Immediate Reduction of Cost of Living Will be Asked
ALSO CLAIM INCREASE

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—President Wilson will be asked tomorrow by spokesmen for the more than 2,000,000 railroad employees that definite assurances be given of an immediate reduction in the cost of living leaders in the wage negotiations declared tonight. As an alternative, union representatives will claim increased wages.

To Meet the President. Representatives of the workers, it was intimated tonight, base their hope for higher wages largely on the increase in the cost of living since the last was increased in 1918. The cost of living question will be employed to the fullest extent of the unions power in the conference with the president it was indicated. Immediately after the announcement that the president would see a union committee of three, a meeting of union heads was called and preparations begun for possible presentation of verbal claims in amplifications of the written statements submitted thru Director General Hines. Employees will be represented by B. M. Jewell, acting president of the railway employees department, American Federation of Labor, E. J. Manion, president of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers and Timothy Shea, acting president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers.

There was evidence tonight among union officials of fear that the president would refuse to grant their demands. A few said they could see no hope of a favorable settlement.

Mr. Hines in transmitting data to President Wilson today was understood to have made suggestions relative to a final disposition of the problems. These, however, were definite recommendations, it was said. Union leaders had knowledge of what Mr. Hines' stand was and they were understood to fear the president's decision would follow along the same lines.

The director general in his conference with union heads told them he could not grant their demands because of the early termination of federal control and explained that pending legislation which it was expected would set up machinery to provide "impartial and unbiased" handling of the wage claims. The unions argument was that they were thus compelled to face another delay with no assurance of relief.

Mr. Hines conferred today with representatives of the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way employees and Shop Laborers, who have called a strike of their 300,000 members Tuesday, officials of Brotherhood of Railroad Station employees and chiefs of the Longshoremen's union.

The conference was the maintenance of way men resulted practically in placing their demands in the same category with those now before the president.

The maintenance employees' representatives presented a statement from their president, A. E. Barker, J. P. Malloy, vice president, who headed the delegation, "I trust the agreement which railroad administration officials claimed would be broken by the strike contained no provision with respect to wages which required thirty days' notice before cancellation. His construction of the agreement was that the thirty-day clause applied only to 'hours of service and working conditions'."

White house officials indicated their feeling that the crisis has not passed, even though negotiations have been harmonious. Developments have come so rapidly that further changes would not be surprising. The gravity of the situation was emphasized several times today. Counter to this, however, was the suggestion offered in many quarters that regardless of the outcome, rumors of a general strike of all rail workers were not to be regarded seriously because of the pending legislation.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—John Bayne Payne, chairman of the shipping board and formerly general counsel for the railroad administration will become secretary of the interior March 1, succeeding Franklin K. Chairman Payne said tonight he would accept the cabinet appointment because it was the president's wish, but "my heart is in the shipping board."

Mr. Payne said he would ask the president that he be permitted to stay on the board a few weeks so he could leave a comparatively clean slate by disposing of the immediate business, including sale of the former German passenger ships and the reorganization policy being effected.

Representatives of the national council of ship yard and navy yard workers called upon Chairman Payne today asking that the board discontinue cancellation of ship building contracts to encourage ship building in America. The chairman stated that the board would complete its program of contracts left before the armistice with such cancellations as it considered necessary and would grant allowances which would enable shipbuilders to complete vessels for their own accounts.

U. S. FURNISHING PLENTY OF MONEY TO ALLIED NATIONS

Houston Confident of Settlement of Monetary Problems

STATEMENT IS ISSUED

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Confidence that Europe's monetary problems will be settled satisfactorily was expressed today by Secretary Houston in a statement.

This country is furnishing Europe capital to reconstruct the economic life of nations there, he said, explaining advances are being made in the same way Europe aided this country during depression, not by government loans so much as by private means, sale of surplus army equipment and absorption of high grade investment securities offered by European holders. He estimated Europe had received approximately $4,000,000,000 from this country, since the armistice was signed. The position of the United States treasury he said, was very strong and on Monday the last issue of "loan certificates of indebtedness, about $60,000,000 worth in amount, leaving no outstanding floating loan in the sense of short term certificates. Tax certificates outstanding amount to $2,935,949,500, all of which will be paid by income and profits taxes.

The secretary declined to agree with the pessimistic view of some public men who forecast a financial crash and asserted that while there were many difficulties to be overcome, there was nothing to be regarded as extremely grave.

The statement said in part: "The rapid reduction of government expenditure and realization of the surplus stocks accumulated for war purposes have been important factors in making possible reduction of the floating debt and the gross debt of the government in the past five months. The result of the elimination of loan certificates and the great reduction in the floating debt and gross debt have contributed to the application to the payment of loan certificates of an important part of the balance in the general fund, which it had been necessary to retain at a high figure as long as the loan certificates were outstanding to provide for these frequent maturities and which it was possible to reduce greatly."

"Altho the treasury will be obliged to borrow from time to time to meet the current deficit, which in January amounted to less than $3,000,000 in the intervals between income and profits tax installment payments, and the requirements of the war finance corporation the fact that the treasury has no uncovered maturities is of immense importance. So long as the treasury had certificates of indebtedness maturing in very large amounts when it could only provide the funds to meet them by fresh borrowings, its position might under certain circumstances have become embarrassing (tho it never did) and it was consequently impossible for the federal reserve board to exert any effective control over credit."

"The position of the treasury today and the future of the market for the liberty bonds and victory notes is bright. The picture would, of course, be changed if congress should embark upon new expenditures on a large scale. The position is that of giving the people time and will to save capital sufficient to enable them to absorb that part of the war issues still owned or loaned upon by banks and as well the flood of securities being pressed upon our markets from foreign sources."

"The depression in high grade investment securities in this country at present is to a very important extent the result of heavy selling of such securities in our markets from foreign sources. By absorbing these high grade investment securities the American (Continued on Page Four)

Representatives of the Consumers league in Chicago have taken pains to deny the report that the league purposed a boycott on farmers in the hope of bringing down living costs. That report was really ludicrous. The consumers would certainly have a happy time running a boycott on the farmers, who produce both the bread and meat that the consumer must have.

Some Democrats and others have all along urged that there must be a settlement of the peace treaty in order to stabilize business. They have said that with the signing of the treaty all doubt would disappear from the business situation and that everybody will be prosperous. It looks now as if settlement of the long debate in congress over the treaty is at hand. In accordance with the prophets mentioned the rate of foreign exchange must be expected to immediately afterward reach a normal condition. But the chances are that the exchange rate will remain about the same until there is a change in the balance of trade. Normal conditions will not come in a minute even if the treaty is ratified.

IF LINCOLN STILL LIVED

Chairman Hays of the National Republican Committee in a Lincoln Day address at St. Louis made this inspiring statement.

If an Abraham Lincoln were still may be the chief need of Europe, how much more surely should he be the guiding star of his own native land, the only land he ever loved except his great heart was filled with loving kindness for all mankind. We have not the man, but we have his spirit: we have his faith; we have his words:

"History is the voice of God sounding across the centuries the laws of right and wrong."

"Eternal right makes right. As we understand our duty let us do it."

Let us stop there. Let that be the message that we believe Lincoln would bring to us tonight, venturing only to add what he almost surely would say in simple phrase: "And don't get discouraged. There is no problem America cannot solve. There never has been. There never will be. Look forward, not backward. Look up, not down. God will do the rest, not for America only, but through America, for the world.

LIBRARIES PLAN TO HELP

The American Library Association has entered upon a movement to create a better citizenship and to throw a healing light upon the industrial and economic problems now agitating the country through the application of its "Books For Everybody" project.

There are in the United States today 15,000,000 foreign born who depend chiefly upon the foreign press. If the proper books do not exist in sufficient numbers the Association as part of its Enlarged Program will seek to bring the publisher and translator together in order that the needs of the situation may be met. The Association believes the wave of unrest is due in a measure to the lack of a proper understanding on the part of the foreign born and that a solution of the problem will be found in books which breathe the spirit of American ideals and traditions. The extension of the county library system, which assures a flexible circulation to every section of the county adopting it, is another phase of the Enlarged Program which the A. L. A. advocates. The need of more books in the uniform type for the 75,000 blind people in the United States is still another problem with which the Enlarged Program deals.

trial statistics well under way. The general schedules have already been mailed to all manufacturing establishments in the country, approximately 400,000.

More than 1200 special agents will be needed by the Census Bureau to carry on the vast work of the enumerating each factory, mine, quarry, oil and gas well in the nation, and Director Rogers has issued an open invitation for all men in Illinois who are interested to file applications for these jobs immediately with the Census Bureau, Washington.

According to present plans eighty-two special agents will be needed in the nineteen Illinois districts with headquarters in the following cities: Chicago, Rock Island, Peoria and Cairo. Fifty-eight special agents will be required in the city of Chicago alone.

In 1914 the year the last manufactures census of the United States was taken the State of Illinois reported 18,388 establishments employing 566,943 wage earners. Wages paid during that year amounted to $349,910,000; the capital invested amounted to $1,943,836,000; and the value of products reached the total of $2,247,323,000. The corresponding figures for the city of Chicago are: Number of establishments, 10,115; wage earners, 313,710; capital invested, $1,190,069,000; wages paid, $213,737,372; and value of products, $1,483,493,000.

Announcement.
This year I'll be a candidate for Woodrow Wilson's honored place; my friends keep chasing to my gate, and urging me to make the race. My platform is a simple thing, one single plank is all it owns: Cut out extravagance, by jing, quit burning up the precious bones! The cost of government, these times, gives every thoughtful soul a wrench; our government blows in the dimes, yet calls on voters to retrench. It taxes people to the grave, and makes their workworn spirits sore, then urges easy marks to save, so it can touch them for some more. When I take up my residence where now the White House banner flaps, I'll cut down every fool expense, and fire all loafers who have snaps. I'll shear the grafters to the hide, and clothe the toilers with their wool; all other Vital Things may slide until the treasury is full. HUGH GREEN TALKS TO CITY TEACHERS

Explained New Law and Gave Some Statistics on Salaries—Teachers of Grades Salaries in Jacksonville Average $2.03 Per Day.

Hugh Green made an address before the city teachers association at David Prince Thursday night on the new law recently passed allowing boards of education to submit the proposition for increased taxes for general school purposes.

Mr. Green has given the new law a close study and presented some facts that proved most interesting to the teachers.

In his opening remarks Mr. Green called attention to the fact that Jacksonville is essentially an educational center. He spoke of the various colleges and commented on the fact that the public school system stands high throughout the state.

The speaker said the fact that the schools were of such high standard was because of the high class of teachers employed and also because the citizens were back of the schools.

Grade Teachers Average $2.03 Per Day.

A few figures were then given by Mr. Green on salaries. He called attention to the fact that the average wage for city teachers in the first six grades was $740. This must be divided by 365 because the teachers are compelled to live while they are not teaching school.

This figures the munificent sum of $2.03 per day. Based on the amount that sum will buy compared with a dollar in 1914 makes the buying power in 1919 92 cents. Truly a goodly sum to exist on for one who must always be at ones best.

The average wage for teachers of the seventh and eighth grades is $2.33 per day and for the high school teachers $2.96 per day.

The speaker also compared ten cities in Illinois with Jacksonville. Five of these cities are larger and five are smaller than Jacksonville. He found that their average wage is larger than that paid in Jacksonville, which is noted as an educational center.

However, every one of these cities have recently voted on adopting the provision of the new law which gives boards of education the power to levy more taxes. The speaker pointed out that this extra revenue is not all for increased salaries but also for providing modern equipment for the schools.

Teachers Should Present Cause.

In closing, Mr. Green said he did not believe that any fair minded citizen would vote against the proposed law at the coming election when the facts are known and it is shown how poorly paid the men and women are who have charge of the children at the most important periods of their lives. He also told the teachers that they should not hesitate to go out and place their cause before the people and ask them to vote to the adoption of the law at the election to be held a week from next Saturday.

BANQUETS SERVED IN THREE CHURCHES

Short Addresses Made by Grown-ups and Those of Fewer Years—An Aid to Comradeship.

The fathers at State Street church entertained their sons last evening in the church parlors. All gathered in the Sunday school room and cordiality was rampant. Then the fathers took their sons up stairs to an excellent banquet which had been prepared by a committee of the women consisting of Mrs. Matthew Miller, chairman; Mesdames, Ed Dunlap, Harry Brady, S. W. Foley, Frank Strawn, C. A. Barnes, L. O. Vaught, Henry Goebel, W. H. Marbach and Misses Mary Dobyns and Florence Wardhaugh. An orchestra composed of Miss Margaret Tomlinson, Edward Tomlinson, Felix Farrell, Sheldon Nicol, Howard Nicol, and Ernest E. Olds furnished excellent music all during the evening.

After doing justice to the fine menu, the men and boys pushed back their chairs. Rev. W. H. Marbach acted as toastmaster and introduced T. M. Tomlinson, who spoke on the father as the boys' chum. Kenneth Danskin told about the kind of a father he would like to have. States Attorney Carl Robinson, who spoke on "The Religion of Lincoln." He laid emphasis on Lincoln's statement that "he would subscribe to any church which took as its creed, 'Love God and Love Your Neighbor.'"

Then America was sung, after which Mayor Crabtree spoke on "What Shall It Profit Jacksonville if it Gain the Whole World and Lose its Own Boys." James H. Danskin, J. S. Findley, Felix E. Farrell, Ed. Tomlinson and L. O. Vaught made short talks. The men and boys called the women out and gave them a rising vote of thanks and expressed their gratitude by long applause. Then with the singing of "Home, Sweet Home" and prayer by the pastor the meeting adjourned.

AT CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The Pastoral Helpers of the Central Christian church served a fine banquet to 156 fathers and sons of that church Thursday evening. Frank Byrns presided during the evening. The first thing on the program was a contest on facts relating to the life of Lincoln. Elza Bown then gave an exhibition of memory tests.

Ivan Rossiter described very graphically the battle of Sanitary Woods which was fought at top of Ypres salient in June, 1916. At that time the Germans were far superior in the amount of artillery on the line. The British artillery had been moved south for battle of the Somme and this left the Canadians without artillery protection in the Ypres salient. The Germans pounded Sanitary Woods with their artillery from which there was no protection for the Canadians. The company to which Rossiter belonged was holding the advanced position and after the bombardment those who were left alive were taken prisoners. It was there that the speaker was wounded and taken prisoner.

Rev. M. L. Pontius gave a short talk including the reading of the "parable of the prodigal father." After the program the company went to the Sunday school rooms and enjoyed four reels of good motion pictures. Bernard Gause made a motion which was seconded by Harold May, that the boys thank the men for the banquet and entertainment. This was enthusiastically carried by a rising vote.

Parable of the Prodigal Father. "A certain man had two sons, and the younger of them said to his father, 'Give me the portion of thy time and thy attention, and thy companionship, and thy counsel and guidance which falleth to me.'"

And he divided unto them his living in that he paid the boy's bills and sent him to a select preparatory school and to dancing schools and to college and tried to believe that he was doing his full duty by the boy.

And not many days after the father gathered all his interests and aspirations and ambitions and took his journey into a far country, into the land of stocks and bonds and securities, and other things which do not interest a boy, and there he wasted his precious opportunities of being a chum to his own son.

And when he had spent the very best of his life and had gained money but had failed to find satisfaction, there arose a mighty famine in his heart and he began to be in want of sympathy and real companionship.

And he went and joined himself to one of the clubs of that country, and they elected him chairman of the house committee, and president of the club, and sent him to the legislature.

And he fain would have satisfied himself with the husks that other men did eat and no man gave unto him any real friendship.

But when he came to himself he said, how many men of my acquaintance have boys whom they understand and who understand them, who talk about their boys, and associate with their boys, and seem perfectly happy in the comradeship of their sons, and I perish here with heart hunger. I will arise and go unto my son, and will say unto him, son I have sinned against Heaven and in thy sight and am no more worthy to be called thy father. Make me as one of thy acquaintances. And he arose and came to his son.

But while he was afar off his son saw him and was moved with astonishment and instead of running and falling on his neck he drew back and was ill at ease. And the father said unto him, son I have sinned against Heaven and in thy sight. I have not done my duty by you and I am no more

Forgive me and now let me be your chum.

But the son said, I wish it were possible, but it is too late. There was a time when I wanted to know things, when I wanted companionship and advice and counsel, but you were too busy. I got the information and I got the companionship, but I got the wrong kind.

CONGREGATIONAL AND WESTMINSTER CHURCHES

Congregational and Westminster churches Thursday night at the Congregational church. Fathers and sons to the number of 75 gathered in the parlors of the church shortly after 6 o'clock and the dinner was served in the rooms above at 6:30 by ladies of the church. The dining rooms had been appropriately decorated with flags in honor of Lincoln's birthday. The tables too were decorated and the dinner served was of a very satisfying kind.

Earl M. Sunk presided and grace was said by Dr. F. C. Noyes. At various intervals during the evening there was mass singing every way. It was a joyous occasion. Addresses were made by Rev. W. R. Johnson, Fred Bray and Franklin Scott. All of the speakers were brief in what they had to say and the program did not drag at any point.

Mr. Bray's theme was "What Boys Can Do." He said that Dr. Frank Crane, who is something of a philosopher, has observed that you can measure a man by what he likes to do rather than by what he does. The speaker suggested that there is much of truth in this statement and that the way that grownups and those of younger years spend their leisure hours is indicative of their real desires and purposes.

"These banquets for fathers and sons that have come into vogue in recent years are indeed worth while, as they promote comradeship between fathers and sons and increase the intimacy of their relationships. The boys need the influence of their fathers and at the same time there is value to the father in remembering that his life must be something of an example for his son."

Franklin Scott, the next speaker, referred to the value of comradeship between fathers and sons, especially for the boys during the ages from 10 to 12 years. He said that nothing was more helpful to the boy than comradeship with his father during these years, when that comradeship will help in molding character. He suggested that too often fathers seem to think that if they devote their time to business and to earning money for the pleasure and comfort of their children, that they have done enough or that this is more necessary than companionship. Experience has shown too often that the mere furnishing of money does not give the boys what they need.

Mr. Scott said that it doesn't hurt boys to work and that further the interest that fathers can show by joining with their sons in sports and in other affairs of life really give more of value than those things that come with wealth.

Rev. W. R. Johnson, formerly of Winchester and now a resident of this city, based his helpful address on the text, "What then shall this boy be?" "There are great possibilities in the group of boys here and I cannot but be impressed with the thought as I look into your eyes. I disagree with the often made statement that the 'hand that rocks the cradle, rules the world.' I believe that experience shows that the father has an equal influence with the mother in shaping the life of his son, and frequently a greater influence.

"Hereditry has much to do with our lives and it is often 'like father, like son.' We see this in the callings that young men follow. They are very likely to take up the same kind of work that their father has done. Children are imitators and this very thought should have much to do in influencing men to think about keeping their own lives circumspect. The father who does the right thing himself has a far better chance of raising a son who is a credit to the family than does the careless father."

The program closed with the benediction by Rev. Mr. Collins.

GITLOW SENTENCED

New York, Feb. 11.—Five to ten years in state prison was the sentence imposed in the supreme court today on Benjamin Gitlow, former Bronx assemblyman, who was convicted of violating a state's criminal anarchy statute. The charges were preferred as the result of articles advocating the overthrow of government by force, which were published in the Revolutionary Age of which Gitlow was business manager.

"The Banker"

It isn't often that one reads pleasant words about bankers—except after they are dead. Politicians are free to make capital by denouncing them, and too many have been all too willing to agree with the politician.

The fact of the business is, and it will be readily apparent to every man or woman who thinks over it for a while, there is in no community a man who does more for that community and takes as little out of it as the banker. You go to a lawyer for advice, and even though you may not act on that advice, he charges you for it. You are in doubt as to money affairs, maybe you stand to lose several thousand dollars in a transaction, and you consult a banker. He sits down with you, gives you freely of his time that is worth good money to him; he gives you the benefit of counsel that he has been years in learning, and you depart on your way with a mere thank you. And too often you forget before the end of the week that the banker did you a favor.

The banker has won the respect of his community simply by playing square with the public, and by devoting all the time he can possibly spare by making that community a brighter and better place in which to live. He stands willing to sacrifice his time and spend his money for the townspeople and the rural residents who could hardly carry on their business without his advice and friendship.

We believe the community of Jacksonville has ever found the bankers of the city and county ready and willing to assist not only their own customers, but those of other banks at any and all times, and to the best of their ability.

So, the next time you hear someone berating the bankers—don't waste your time. Do what sensible men should do under such circumstances—turn on your heel and walk away.

ROWDYISM BREAKS OUT IN COPENHAGEN

COPENHAGEN, Feb. 11.—While the plebiscite in the first Schleswig zone passed off without any serious trouble, the rejoicings in Copenhagen were marred by isolated outbreaks of Rowdism.

These culminated in a police station being stormed, the police assaulted and persons arrested for disorderly conduct released.

Between midnight and 3 o'clock this morning huge enthusiastic crowds assembled in the town hall square. The crowds marched to the king's palace singing and cheering for Schleswig's new sovereign, who it is expected will shortly cross the old border mounted on a white charger.

PNEUMONIA CLAIMS FIVE DEATHS IN ONE FAMILY

LAPORTE, Ind., Feb. 11.—Pneumonia has caused five deaths in the Leunischow family, living on a farm near here in eight days. John Leunischow, 28 and Fred Leunischow, 22, died last night. Astor Mathilda was in a critical condition tonight. Two other members of the family, Otto and Elizabeth have influenza, but are expected to recover. The mother died Feb. 2, her son, Carl, three days later, and George Feb. 6.

will take care of you; if you don't you are going to jail.'"

McKeighan said Fletcher added that "he didn't care to have me promise what I would do, because he would know by watching the returns."

After this talk what did you ask Judge Elchorn? "Why I figured it was safer to play on the safe side of it so we kind of decided we would be for New-

"Was the district carried for Mr. Newberry?"

"It was."

"What became of your case?"

"It was reversed."

On cross examination Martin
W. Littleton had the witness relate that he came to Michigan from Cleveland, had been in politics six or seven years and besides the assault and robbery conviction had been arrested two or three years previously for illegal sale of liquor.

"Did you know any of the su-

Mr. Littleton.

"Yes sir."

"Did you believe that Mr.
Fletcher and these men could influence the decision of the supreme court?"

"I hardly believed it. I didn't believe in taking any chances, however."

"Did you believe the statement of Mr. Fletcher was true or at all likely?" persisted the attorney.

"Well, politics is funny; I did not believe in taking chances."

"Will you answer the question?" said Mr. Littleton sternly.

"I answered it as near as I can," said the witness.

"What did you say to Fletcher-er?" asked the attorney.

"I made no reply," said Mc-Keighan. "Fletcher said it was no use replying because they would watch my district and know what I was doing."

The witness then named several

U. S. FURNISHING PLENTY O F MONFY TO ALLIED NATIONS

people are furnishing capital to Europe in Europe's need and are giving this help in just the way Europe helped America in the period of America's growth.

"In the days of the infancy of the republic in the days of our civil war and of the reconstruction after the Civil War of the monetary panics which we suffered until establishment of our federal reserve system, America suffered greatly for lack of capital and credit and because of her depreciated currency and, later her inflationary currency. In those days Europe came to America's aid by the investment of private capital upon attractive terms in American enterprises and in the purchase of American securities at bargain prices. Europe profited enormously by these investments and America profited too because she obtained the capital she needed. Honest and energetic business men in both countries went to work in their own way and solved the problem. Yet, in those days Europe was far better able to meet the relatively small demand of America that is America now, burdened by government expenditures since the beginning of the war to the aggregate amount of about $36,700,000,000 to meet the stupendous demands of Europe."

"I am confident that the solution of Europe's problems will be found by the wisdom and courage of European statesmen in facing the monetary difficulties and by the enlightened sympathetic and friendly cooperation of the business men and workmen of America and Europe."

A TRIBUTE TO LINCOLN'S SON

The Dearborn Weekly has the following interesting statement about Robt. T. Lincoln, son of the martyr president.

Lincoln's son still lives, a link with the past. But because he is Lincoln's son he has always with deliberation and consistency kept himself outside the wide circle of light which shines around his father's name. Others have written for us the life of Lincoln and others have interpreted his spirit.
But some have always felt that Robert T. Lincoln knew his father best, because he was a growing boy when his father was an obscure Illinois lawyer. Lincoln Junior was born in 1843, when Abraham Lincoln was a comparatively young man of 34, and had been a practicing lawyer only six years, and a married man one year. The son was 15 years old when his father made the afterward famous "house divided against itself" speech. He was 17 years old when the Cooper Union Speech was made. He followed his father's footsteps in the law, but by an easier path, going to Harvard Law School. He left his studies to serve as a captain on the staff of General Grant, and after the war resumed his law studies, being admitted to the bar two years after his father was assassinated. Once he was mentioned for the Presidency but resolutely declined. He has never traded on his name or relationship. However, he has served several presidential appointments, once as Secretary of War, and once as Minister to Great Britain.
For thirty years he has been associated with the Pullman Company.

Whether he has prepared his recollections of his father to be published posthumously is not known. The world would welcome a picture of the Great Liberator as he appeared to his growing son. However, to a request for an interview Mr. Lincoln replied, "I appreciate the kindness of the request, but you will excuse me from breaking away from my well established habit." Mr.
Lincoln lives in Washington.

Tax Books Ready For The Collector

The difficult work of tax extension was completed yesterday by County Clerk G. L. Riggs and his assistants and the books are now in the hands of W. H. Weatherford, sheriff and collector of taxes. The books were ready for delivery this year just two days later than in February, 1919, although there have been some unavoidable delays in compilation. Early in the year after much of the tax extension work had been done the state tax commission increased the value of lands 2 per cent and this meant a revision of a great many figures.

Then school district No. 120, which includes Chapin, was organized and that caused still further revision of figures. However, County Clerk Riggs and his helpers kept steadily on the job, holding some night sessions, with the result that the books are now ready and the sheriff can begin the work of collection.

The rate this year in Jacksonville is $5.56 on the $100 valuation. Last year the rate was $6.92.

However, in accordance with the law taxes this year are figured on the basis of one-half the value of the property instead of one-third as heretofore.

The state tax rate this year is 40c by comparison with 75c a year ago, and even with the one-half valuation the state taxes are lower. But increased taxes for other purposes will make the payment of the property owner higher than before.

A SURE CASE.

When folks feel dizzy, straight-way they get busy. And off to the doctors they go; "Dear doctor," they say I feel ill today; I've got influenza I know.

My brains are all fuzzy, my ears are all buzzy. And no pill ever made will relieve; I've went on a diet, and with orders kept quiet. Tho the reason I can't conceive.

The doctor looked grave, tho his smile was suave. And he eyed her with keen comprehension; Dear madam he said you should be in bed. Your case calls for expert attention.

So many come here and yell in my ear, That they're going to die on the spot; They've all sort of aches, which really are fakes, And they swear its the "flu" that they've got.

Your case is the same, dear madam, or dame. Put 'twill harm none to take home this slip. You're ill it is true, but it's sure not the "flu;" For you've only a mild case of la grippe. Composed by a thirteen year old girl. Mabel Braswell.

Progressive Farmers Demand the World's Best The "Wallis" Tractor

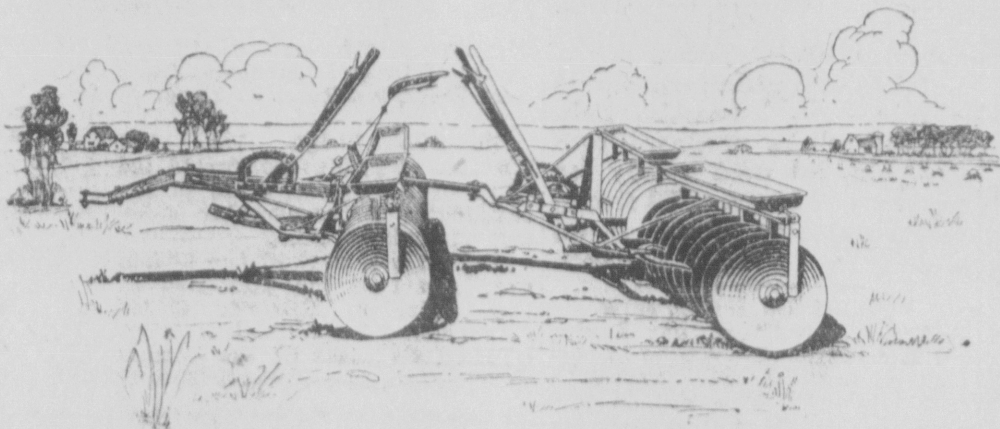

Leads Them All

The "Wallis Cub" Tractor has demonstrated its leadership over other makes by every test, and holds its place by actual supremacy of endurance, economy and performance.

The "Wallis" is built like a battleship, strong, reliable, swift---yet without an ounce of excessive weight.

All the field demonstrations show it to be in a class by itself as to lowest operating cost and by plowing most land per bottom, hour after hour, day after day and year after year.

May we call and explain all details of our tractor or send for free descriptive literature on anything you may be interested in? Please let us hear from you.

Progressive farmers who follow a crop rotation system will plant a large acreage to corn and oats next spring. The area will be larger than usual because wheat has been on the increase during the last two years and in justice to the soil the crop must be changed. Are you prepared?

We have three showrooms and service stations in our enlarged territory and are thus able to make prompt delivery and render efficient service—if you should need it. Right now when you are not busy with crops or other farm duties would be a good time to talk with you regarding the purchase of a tractor and other farm implements which you may need.

CARPENTIER COMING TO U. S. MARCH 13

New York, Feb. 11.—Paris cable advices here today state that Georges Carpentier, European heavy weight champion will sail for this country March 13 and expects to box Jack Dempsey for the world's title in the United States in September. The Carpentier party will include his manager, Deschamps, and two French pugilists of lighter classes, Charles Ledoux and George Papin.

It is understood Carpentier has both film and vaudeville contracts which will occupy his time for four or five months after his arrival in America.

Tex Rickard who promoted the Willard-Dempsey contest refused today to discuss the report that Carpentier was coming to this country under contract with him. It is known however, that Deschamps has requested Rickard to secure matches for both Ledoux and Papin which leads to the general expectation that Rickard will announce the formal matching of Carpentier and Dempsey shortly after the former's arrival.

SCHOOL BOARD MET IN SPECIAL SESSION

Selected Springfield Brick For Use in High School—Contract For Corridor Signed

The board of education held a special session last night to decide the question of the kind of face brick to be used in the high school building. Architect Royer urged that a decision be made at this time. Samples had previously been presented by manufacturers of Alton, Springfield and a number of other cities. The Springfield brick were chosen and the cost will be $28 per 1,000.

Recently there was some discussion with English Bros., the contractors, with reference to their bid for the construction of a corridor connecting the high school building and the David Prince building. The original bid was $19,000 and about two weeks later when the board decided to build the corridor Mr. English said that the change in price of materials would mean the addition of $2,750 to the price.

The matter was finally referred to the finance committee with power to act. Several conferences were held with Mr. English and Architect Royer, and in the end Mr. English signed the contract at the $19,000 figure originally submitted.

the total number of members in Illinois, left the profession last year, according to a report received from the office of the state superintendent of public instruction. The total number of teachers was 16,502.

Other data regarding the teaching profession in the state follows:

Total number of new teachers entering September, 1919, 2835, or 17 percent.

Total shortage of teachers, 272, or 1 percent.

Total number of teachers below standard, $67, or 5 percent.

Total shortage, including teachers below standard, 1139 or 7 percent.

The information was obtained by the state superintendent of instruction from sixty-five superintendents.

Fifty reported that it had been necessary to accept lower qualifications in order to supply teachers. Fourteen did not have to do this.

Five reported that teachers' salaries had increased in favorable comparison with other vocations, while 60 reported in the negative.

One superintendent said that teachers' salaries had increased in proportion to the cost of living. Sixty-four emphatically reported in the negative.

In forty-seven school districts the number of teachers less than 21 years of age is increasing. Fifteen replied no.

A comparison between the salaries of teachers and the union scale of wages for certain occupations in five middle western states is made. Teachers are at the bottom of the list.

ESSEX
Sets New World's Mark
 Essex holds the world's official long distance endurance mark. A stock chassis made 3,037 miles in fifty hours in a test under A. A. A. observation on the Cincinnati Speedway. Tho the test was equal to years of hardest road usage, the car showed no signs of wear.
 An Essex stock car set the world's road mark of 1,061 miles in 24 hours, over rough Iowa roads and thru a blizzard. Not a single adjustment was made.
 And Essex also has set a world's record. Over 22,000 critical motorists paid more than $35,000,000 for Essex cars in a year. That shows how Essex beauty, performance, endurance and economy and moderate price are appreciated.
 When shall we give a demonstration?

SOME FACTS ABOUT INCOME TAX RETURNS

The Professional Man's Income Tax.

Figuring Income Tax is an easy job for the professional man. By education and training he is accustomed to drawing up statements. He has records of transactions involving income, and keeps well in touch with his expenditures.

Just what he is allowed to deduct as professional expense, in figuring his net income, is what he wants to know each year as the tax season arrives. Therefore, a review of the items in general is given in this article.

Returns for 1919.

The present income Tax law requires that returns for 1919 be filed on or before March 15, 1920, at the office of the Collector of Internal Revenue for the district in which the taxpayer lives. At least one quarter of the tax due must accompany the return.

An unmarried person must file a return if his or her net income was $1,000 or over; and a married person living with wife (or husband) must file if their joint net income was $2,000 or over. A widow or widower, or a married person living apart from wife

The requirement to file a Federal Income Tax return is not contingent upon there being a tax due.

Form 1040A is used for net income of not more than $5,000; Form 1040 for net income over $5,000. Instructions and a working sheet accompany each return form.

Every firm of professional men operating as a corporation must make an annual return of net income on Form 1120; if operating as a partnership, a return on Form 1065 must be filed.

Gross Income.

An individual's gross income from a profession includes all compensation for his services.

Where services are paid for with something other than money, the fair market value of the thing taken in payment is the amount to be included as income. If the services were rendered at a stipulated price, in the absence of evidence to the contrary such price will be presumed to be the fair value of the compensation received.

In the case of a salary received, this should be shown separately, in Block B, of the return. Many professional men and women—lawyers, medical examiners, teachers, accountants, etc.—are officers or employees of a State or a political subdivision of a State, such as city, town, or county. Their salaries or wages as such officers or employees is exempt from the Federal Income Tax. The exemption also applies to fees received by notaries public commissioned by States, also the commissions of receivers appointed by State courts. As to fees for services to clients, patients, etc., these should be included in the gross income for the taxable year in which received, unless they are included when they accrue to him in accordance with an approved method of accounting followed by him.

Cash Basis.

A professional man may make his return on the basis of cash intake and actual expenditures for the year. It should be noted here that a taxpayer is deemed to have received income which has been credited to or set apart for him without restriction.

Accrual Basis.

A more exact and equitable method of figuring net income is on the "accrual basis." This means a computation on the basis of income earned and expenses incurred, whether paid or not, that actually pertain to the taxable year, excluding income earned and expenses incurred in previous or succeeding years. A professional man who keeps books of account should make returns by this method. If his accounting method is one generally employed, and shows a correct net income.

Deductions.

A professional man may claim as deductions the cost of supplies used by him in the practice of his profession, expense paid in the operation and repair of an automobile used in making professional calls, dues to professional societies and subscriptions to professional journals, the rent paid for office rooms, the expense of the fuel, light, water, telephone, etc., used in such offices, and the hire of office assistants. Amounts expended for books, furniture and professional instruments and equipment of a permanent character are not allowable as deductions.

In the deductions from gross income, the law specifically bars personal living or family expenses.

In the case of a professional man who has a regular place of business and who rents a residence, but incidentally receives there clients, patients or callers in connection with his professional work, no part of the rent of his home is deductible. If, however, he uses part of the house for his office, such portion of the rent as is properly attributable to such office is deductible.

The uncollectible bills of professional men, particularly doctors, dentists and lawyers, have a very important bearing on the net earnings for each year. The principal point in connection with such accounts made in Income Tax procedure is that there can be no allowance for such bad debts in returns figured on the "cash basis." That is, a person who has been making his annual returns on the basis of cash received and actual cash expenditures each year has never shown as income his accounts with patients or clients, and is, therefore, not entitled to take them out of income.

On the other hand, a person who annually figured his gross income on the "accrual basis," that is, included his cash receipts and charges against patients and clients for all of his services performed during each year, is entitled to a deduction for "bad debts" covering such accounts as he ascertained during the year were uncollectible and charged off on his books.

Wear and Tear.

A reasonable allowance for the wear and tear and obsolescence of such instruments and equipment, etc., is allowed. The proper allowance is that amount which should be set aside for the taxable year in accordance with a consistent plan by which the total of such amounts for the useful life of the property will suffice, with the salvage or scrap value, at the end of such useful life, to provide in place of the property its cost or its value as of March 1, 1913, if acquired by the taxpayer before that date.

Obsolescence.

When through some new invention, or radical change in methods, or similar circumstance the usefulness in his profession of some or all of his instruments or other equipment is suddenly terminated, so that he discards such assets permanently from use, he may claim as a loss in that year the difference between the cost (reduced by reasonable adjustment for wear and tear, which it has undergone) and its junk or salvage value. If the apparatus was owned prior to March 1, 1913, its fair market value on that date should be considered, instead of its cost, in figuring obsolescence. This deduction is allowed by law, but the taxpayer must be able to substantiate any claim made on this basis.

LIKE BEING HIT BY RATTLE SNAKE

Says That Every Time You Cut or Pick at a Corn You Invite Lockjaw

You reckless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison are now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called freezone, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn, the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn, root and all lifts right out with the fingers without one particle of pain.

This freezone is a sticky substance which dries the moment it is applied and just loosens the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. He says a quarter of an ounce will cost very little, at any of the drug stores, but this is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You are positively warned that cutting or picking at a corn is a suicidal habit.

WORKS HARD TO AVERT FLU EPIDEMIC

Government and City Health Officials Warn People to Keep Clean.

Stay Away from People with Coughs and Colds.

"Avoid crowds if you want to avoid influenza," says Association for Improving the Conditions of New York.

Keep your hands clean, drink plenty of fresh water; sleep with windows open; eat three uniform meals a day including a good breakfast.

People who have catarrh or frequent colds invite influenza, declares a prominent Kentucky druggist.

The membrane of the throat and nose is raw, sore and tender, and makes a lovely abiding place for germs to thrive and multiply.

He advises an inexpensive home-made remedy that will bring relief in less than a day and will stop all discharge and soothe and heal the inflamed membrane in a few days.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Pour three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcline into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.

Gargle the throat as directed and snuff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat clean and healthy.

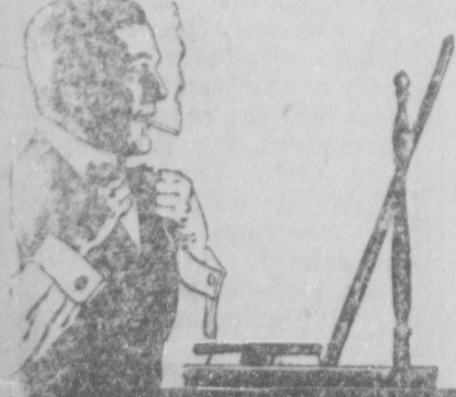

Nearly all druggists dispense Mentholized Arcline in vials containing exactly three-quarters of an ounce, which is all you need to make a pint of this healthful medicine.

HANNIBAL PYTHIANS HAVE FINE QUARTERS

L. O. Vaught Arranged for Installation of D. O. K. K. Temple in Missouri City—Local Knights to Have Charge.

L. O. Vaught has just returned from Hannibal, Mo., where he was sent by the Imperial Prince to make arrangements for the installing in that city of a temple of the Knights of Klonoassa.

Mr. Vaught found there an enthusiastic bunch of Pythians. They own their own castle hall and in many respects it is a model having a fine auditorium, with splendid pipe organ, banquet hall, parlors, kitchen and all the modern conveniences. It is a most attractive building on one of the main streets, centrally located.

At the meeting Tuesday evening it was decided to invite Ilderim temple of Jacksonville to institute the Hannibal temple. It was further decided to ask Captain McCarthy and his Arabs to be present and assist in the work.

The exact date of the institution was not set, that being left to the visitors to determine, according to their convenience.

The local temple is to have a meeting Monday evening next to pass upon the details and fix the date.

The invitation is a decided compliment to the members of Ilderim temple. The degree team gives the work in a manner which is surpassed by no temple in the country and that fact is widely appreciated and recognized. The Hannibal men will not be disappointed.

PEACE OR WAR.

Editor Journal: The St. Louis Globe-Democrat is an ardent supporter of the league of nations. The Chicago Tribune claims to be "for the league without reservations," but all its influence and argument is against the league.

Last Monday each of these papers, in separate editorials, furnished irrefutable evidence and argument for the league of nations as a preventative of war—the Globe-Democrat consciously and the Tribune unconsciously.

The Globe-Democrat said: "Rash, indeed, would be the men who would dare to say that the war through which we have just passed would have afflicted the earth, if the league of nations had been in existence in 1914. If Austria had been compelled to submit its dispute with Serbia to the mediatory agencies of the league, and if Germany had known that the war, contemplated and prepared for, would draw against it the forces of civilization, as it would have known had there been such a league, the war would never have started."

The Tribune said: "The war which we fought cost the nation $33,000,000,000, including loans to allies. It is the conviction of many Americans that if the United States had universal training before this war, this nation would not have been in it, and could have rescued France, by merely stating that we would get in it."

"By merely stating that we will get in it." That is what article 10 of the league of nations does, and thus prevents war. That sort of warning, from a powerful nation like the United States, in co-operation with the other civilized nations of the earth, will prevent our boys being drawn into the next world war, for with that warning there won't be any next world war.

As the Tribune says, all we need to do is to "say it." And article 10 of the league of nations "says it." If we are afraid to "say it," we thereby invite war. Because we leave the bold and upstart nation under the impression that it can "get in" and we will stay out. If we take pains to remove that impression, then the reckless nation will stay out of war for it will know that if it does not stay out we will "get in."

The Tribune says that universal military training will "cost us only $130,000,000 a year." Well, the league of nations will cost us only a fraction of that huge amount, and gives us, besides, the support of forty other nations in favor of peace. If we will only "say it" in the league of nations, we obtain a far surer and cheaper insurance policy against war than universal military training can possibly give. It is better to prepare for peace than to prepare for war. If we prepare for peace we are likely to get peace. If we prepare for war, we are pretty sure to get war.

CHAPIN NEWS ITEMS OF SPECIAL INTEREST

Mrs. F. M. Roberts Returns From Visit at Monmouth—Col., and Mrs. Charles Taylor Return From Baylis—Other News.

Chapin, Feb. 12.—Mrs. F. M. Roberts returned Monday from a few days' visit at Monmouth, Ill., where she visited Mrs. Lottie Blackwell and Dr. and Mrs. Venter. While there she called on Mrs. Nancy Agee an old resident of Chapin, whose son, Rev. Ivan Agee, is the minister at the Christian church. Mrs. Roberts attended services both morning and evening and much enjoyed hearing Brother Agee, as he was a former pastor at her old home town of Concord.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Woodward received a telegram Wednesday morning from Ellis P. Gish of Elreka telling them of the death of his mother. He has the loving sympathy of a host of friends in Chapin and Concord and Jacksonville. Mr. Gish is a missionary from the Christian churches in Illinois to Nanking, China, and is now home on furlough.

Col. Charles Taylor and wife, who have been with her mother, who is very ill at Baylis, returned to Chapin Tuesday evening. Mr. Taylor had a severe cold and was afraid he might be coming down with the prevailing disease. We are glad to report that he is much better at this writing.

School closed Wednesday morning for the balance of the week.

NAMES FOR NEW LAKE

John Lewis now comes and suggests for our new lake "Greater Lake."

I have been a reader of the Journal for thirty years or more and Jacksonville has been my trading point for years. I see there are plenty of names suggested for the new lake. Why not call it Jacksonville Lake, as the people of Jacksonville built the lake.

T. S. BROWN.

As quite a number of names have been suggested for the new lake, I have been in hopes that some one would say "Excelsior Lake" or "Lake Excel." This is the best method the city has found or tried for water, therefore I think "Lake Excel" would be very appropriate.
